Cardiff & District Law Society eNewsletter

Read all about it!

Have you got news you want to share with your colleagues in South Wales? Why not use this newsletter to get the word out: moving up or moving on; charity work; social events; general announcements. Current distribution of this newsletter is nearly 2,000 legal people every week and growing. Think of the possibilities! It's enough to make you dizzy. Maybe not. Anyway, contact us to let us know what's happening.

Personal Injury

Well, it's all kicking off in Personal Injury (again) with APIL publishing their response to the MOJ's recent announcement on fees for the revised RTA scheme and the new EL/PL scheme and threatening judicial review. Are the gloves coming off? With Claimant lawyers crying foul and Defendant lawyers cheering, the Law Society (the Chancery Lane one) focuses on access to justice in trying to balance equal representation for both sides. You can read APIL's response here. If you're a FOIL member, you can read the FOIL response here.

Judges' retirement

As you may have heard, Pontypridd's DFJ, His Honour Judge Crispin Masterman, has recently retired and now His Honour Judge D Wyn Rees, Circuit Judge at Pontypridd, is retiring too. To send them off with style you are invited to a party to commiserate / celebrate / commemorate at the Hilton Hotel, Kingsway, Cardiff on 22 February 2013. More info here.
